

Dialogue Day 10:

Pushing Boundaries, Taking Risks: Development Education in Initial Teacher Education
UCC & The Lee Hotel, Cork | 25th May 2018

Draft Schedule

9:00 - 9:30 Registration (Lee Hotel)

9:30 – 10:00 Welcome, Introductions, Overview (Lee Hotel)

10:00 – 11:45 Dialogue Session 1: Development Education in Initial Teacher Education (Lee Hotel)

An opportunity to consider and discuss the nature and implementation of Ubuntu supported Development Education projects in the 2017-2018 Academic Year. This session will comprise of three parallel breakout groups and focus on how projects pushed boundaries of knowledge and understanding, teacher education practices and student teacher empowerment.

12:00 – 1:30 Dialogue Session 2: Art Exhibition

‘We Make the Road By Walking’ (The Glucksman Gallery)

Walk through an exhibition of UCC student teachers’ artefacts developed as part of their engagement with Development Education during PME1. There will be an opportunity to hear and reflect on students’ experiences of embedding Development Education into their teaching and practice. The session will culminate with the launch of the exhibition.

1:30 – 2:30 Lunch (The River Room, Bobo Café, Glucksman Building)

2:30 – 3:30 Dialogue Session 3: Development Education in Higher Education (Sisk Room, Glucksman Building)

A plenary discussion focusing on how Higher Education responds to issues relating to development e.g. equality, sustainability, migration, climate justice, and prompting consideration of the role of initial teacher education in this regard.

3:30 – 3:40 Concluding Remarks

The Ubuntu Network is funded by Irish Aid through Development Education Annual Grants.

Irish Aid

An Roinn Gnóthaí Eachtracha agus Trádála
Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade