
DIALOGUE DAY 9

Curriculum, Policy and Advocacy: The Increasing Need for Development Education

...an invitation to teacher educators to explore and discuss approaches to enhancing curriculum and policy for Development Education.

26th May 2017 ♦ Ashling Hotel, Dublin

9:15 - 9:30

Welcome & Introductions

9:30 – 11:30

The Need for Development Education in Education Policy

“In the age of Brexit and Trump, we need ‘development education’ more than ever...”

Stephen McCloskey, Centre for Global Education, Belfast

Development Education in Curriculum Development

Aoife Rush, NCCA

Research Paper: How does Development Education contribute to the preparation of teachers in a global society?

Deirdre Hogan, Ubuntu Network & Dr. Joanne O’Flaherty,
University of Limerick

11:30 - 12:00

Refreshments

12:00 - 1:30

Development Education in Action in ITE

Fishbowl: Ubuntu-supported Development Education in ITE 2016-2017. An overview of projects and teacher educators' reflections on Integration in practice.

Project Leaders: Karen Buckley (Hibernia College), Maria Campbell (St. Angela's College), Ann Devitt (TCD), Brenda Gallagher (NUIG), Fiona King (NCAD), Kevin Maye (GMIT), Majella McSharry (DCU IoE), Aoife Neary & Tim Murphy (UL), Stephen O'Brien (UCC), Angela Rickard (MU), Ciaran Sugrue (UCD).

1:30 - 2:15

Refreshments

2:15 - 4:15

Student Teacher Perspectives on Development Education in ITE

Student Teachers' personal experiences of Development Education in ITE

Inputs from PME student teachers on their experiences of Development Education in ITE

Researching multicultural inclusion in post-primary classrooms: Student Teachers' Stories)

Stephen O'Brien, Gertrude Cotter, UCC

DIALOGUE DAY 9: CURRICULUM, POLICY AND ADVOCACY
THE INCREASING NEED FOR DEVELOPMENT EDUCATION